Reflection

Generosity is the willingness to give freely without expecting anything in return. It puts the needs of others before our own and is one of the greatest acts of selflessness and kindness. It encourages us to perceive others in a more positive light and fosters a sense of community and a feeling of interconnectedness. Every act of generosity reminds us we come with into this world with nothing, we leave with nothing and the finitude of our nature. Generosity not only frees us from the shackles of materialism and consumerism; it frees us from ourselves.

The power of generosity has the potential to improve relationships, wellbeing and happiness. It aids us in reducing stress and negative emotions, and possesses the ability to enhance one's sense of purpose. Generosity contributes to our living a more meaningful and fulfilling life. Let's pray that we will be able to cultivate a spirit of generosity in our community.

Quotes

"You cannot do a kindness too soon, for you never know how soon it will be too late."
"Those who bring sunshine to the lives of others cannot keep it from themselves."
"It's not how much we give but how much love we put into giving."

Scripture References

Whoever is generous to the poor lends to the Lord, and he will repay him for his deed (Proverbs 19:17).
Whoever has a bountiful eye will be blessed, for he shares his bread with the poor (Proverbs 22:0).
Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God (Hebrews 13:16).
